COLLECT

God of glory,
by the raising of your Son
you have broken the chains of death and hell:
fill your Church with faith and hope;
for a new day has dawned and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

ACTS 10: 34-43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

'You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all.

'That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

'We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

'He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

I CORINTHIANS 15: 19-26

GOSPEL READING:

LUKE 24: 1-12

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had accompanied Jesus came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared.

They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body.

While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them.

The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, 'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.'

Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

POST COMMUNION

God of Life,
who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son
to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection
have delivered us from the power of our enemy:
grant us so to die daily to sin,
that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lent Appeal 2019

Today is your final chance to support this year's causes: the Bishop of London's Modern Day Slavery projects, and David and Shelley Stokes in Argentina. Put your donation in a blue envelope marked Lent Appeal.

Lay Minister joining us

St James's will shortly welcome Dr Sylvie Collins-Mayo, a Licensed Lay Minister (formerly Lay Reader). Sylvie is the Head of the Department of Criminology and Sociology at Kingston University, specialising in the Sociology of Religion, and has been training for lay ministry based at her husband's former parish in Shepherd's Bush. (He has moved into prison chaplaincy so she now needs a parish base.) She will be licensed in June, but will join us before then.

Future of our High Streets

Richmond council is holding a meeting to discuss the future of the High Street in the dot.com era at York House, Twickenham, on Tuesday 30 April at 2pm. Alex Schlagman from the Save the High Street programme will give an overview of recent initiatives and the council business team to review the rates relief scheme. Free tickets from eventbrite.co.uk

Home sought

A mother is looking to rent a two bed home in SW London for between 6 months and a year from as soon as possible. Access to a garden or park close by would be desirable. The tenants are a mother (mature student) and child. Non-smoker. Excellent references available. Please phone 077 1466 1939 or email yvonne@yourvoicebox.co.uk

Julie Gittoes

Julie Gittoes, our curate from 2003-6, will become vicar of St Mary & Christ Church, Hendon, next month. Her installation service will be on Wednesday 19 June at 7:30pm.

PCC Meeting

The PCC met on Tuesday. As well as dealing with next week's Annual Meeting, it decided to move ahead with repairs to the church roof and agreed a policy for photographing anyone under 18 in church. It also discussed the videoing of services, and agreed to trial filming of special services, within guidelines.
