Generous God,
you give us gifts and make them grow:
though our faith is small as mustard seed,
make it grow to your glory
and the flourishing of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 SAMUEL 6: 1-5, 12b-19

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim.

They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark.

David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart.

They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord.

When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

GOSPEL READING:

MARK 6: 14-29

King Herod heard of the healings and other miracles, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.'

But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.'

But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.'

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her.

For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.'

And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him.

But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.'

She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?'

She replied, 'The head of John the Baptist.'

Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.'

The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her.

Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother.

When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

POST COMMUNION

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

LATEST NEWS

Goodbye to Karen

Today is Karen's final day with us, before starting a new job at a church in Fulham. After today's 9:30am service she will take the Shell Seekers on a trip to Guildford Cathedral. There is a card at the back of church to sign.

Summer Specials

Through the summer, when Shell Seekers does not meet, we are aiming to offer some children's activities during the 9:30am service. Please speak to Jacky or Julian if you can help. There will also be an 11:00 service on 19 August, followed by a picnic and activities in the vicarage garden.

Gardening Club return

The Gardening Club is back in the churchyard at 9.30am next Saturday 21 July for some maintenance and to prepare the ground for a wildflower meadow. Many hands make light work, and you don't need to have green fingers to volunteer! Just arrive suitably dressed, and please bring any useful tools you have at home.

NOTICES

Glyndebourne's Saul

Handel's oratorio is turned into an amazing baroque opera telling Saul's story from the death of Goliath to his own demise at Mount Gilboa. It includes Handel's famous funeral march and will be a spectacular evening filmed at Glyndebourne in 2015. Richmond's Curzon cinema has a one-off screening on Thursday 26 July at 6.30pm. Tickets £22. Booking is advisable.

The cashless collection!

If you forget to bring cash for the Sunday collection, don't despair — you can now make contactless, virtual terminal and SMS payments. Speak to Nick.

Save on home insurance

Take out a new policy with Ecclesiastical and they will give £130 to St James's Church! Parishioners have also saved money by switching. To get a quote. Visit ecclesiastical.com/Trust130 or call 0800 783 0130 and quote Trust 130.

Easyfundraising for church

Did you know that whenever you buy anything online — from your weekly shop to your annual holiday — you could be collecting free donations for St James's Church? There are over 3000 shops and sites on board, ready to make a donation, and it doesn't cost you a penny! Head to easyfundraising.org.uk/causes/stjameshamphill and join for free. Then, every time you shop online, go to easyfundraising first to find the site you want and start shopping. After you have checked out the retailer will make a donation to St James's.

Greece in St Paul's Footsteps 13-20 May 2019

Derek is leading a pilgrimage in Greece next year, following Paul through the country, stopping off at key places on his second missionary journey, including Athens and Corinth. This is a great way of understanding the 'man and his message'. Visiting places of worship, including the amazing monasteries at Meteora, we will also learn about this stream of Christianity. There will be an introductory evening at 8pm on Thursday 26 July with Derek and Scott Robinson. There are brochures at the back of church with more information.

Remember in your prayers...

Please hold in your prayers...

- Residents of Rectory Grove
- The Ark Playgroup at their end of term picnic
- The Gardening Team in the churchyard
- Local traders serving our community
