

ORDER OF QUEEN IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of April, 1864.

PRESENT,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four : of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the ASSIGNMENT OF A DISTRICT CHAPELRY TO THE CONSECRATED CHURCH OF SAINT JAMES, SITUATE AT HAMPTON HILL, in the parish of Hampton, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a DISTRICT CHAPELRY should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Hampton Hill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hampton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF HAMPTON HILL.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being : Provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Burrow, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Hampton, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of burials at the said church of Saint James, situate at Hampton Hill aforesaid, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said James Burrow.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty, will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Hampton Hill, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Hampton, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Hanworth, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Hanworth-road ; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road to its junction with the road leading from Hampton to Twickenham ; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-described road, as far as the centre of the bridge which carries such road over Longford River ; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said river (which in this part flows through Bushey Park), to the middle of the eastern extremity of the pond near the southern corner of the Bushey Stables ; and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of two hundred and forty-two yards or thereabouts, crossing a further portion of the said Bushey Park to a point in the middle of the south-western end of the Stew Ponds ; and extending thence still in the last-named direction along the middle of the said Stew Ponds, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hampton from the parish of Teddington, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Edmund Harrison.
