S. James' Day.—Our Festival falls this year upon a Saturday, but it is proposed to include both the Saturday and Sunday in its observance. On Saturday there will be celebrations of Holy Communion at 7 and 11, and School Children's Service at 3. The rest of the day will be occupied with the usual Sports in the Vicarage Grounds. On Sunday the services throughout the day will be festive. The name of the preacher will be announced later.

Horticultural Society.—The Annual Show will take place in the grounds of Manor House, on Wednesday, July 15th.

The Organ.— The contract finally agreed to by Messrs. Bishop and Son is for the sum of £210, and this includes several important additions and improvements to the original plan. The work has been rapidly proceeded with, and already (June 20th) one load of the interior works has been returned for re-erection. Our subscription list has also made fair progress, and although we still want a little more to meet the contract price and any incidental expenses which may arise, we have every confidence that the necessary sum will eventually be obtained. Herewith is given a list of subscriptions received since our last issue:—

Sunday School.—The expedition to the Crystal Palace was most successfully accomplished on Thursday, June 11th. The day was glorious and the children enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The Hampton Brass Band met the returning party at the Station, and fine weather added much to the comfort of the march in. On the following Saturday the little ones and all others who could not go to the Crystal Palace had their Tea in the Vicarage Grounds, and, again favoured by fine weather, spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

Our Schools.—The Diocesan religious inspection will take place on the morning of the Confirmation Day, Friday, July 17th.

School Finance.—The time for collecting the annual subscriptions is now at hand, so we give a complete list of the subscribers. It will be remembered that our expenses were nearly met in the balance sheet of last year, which appeared in the Parish Magazine for December. In order, however, to maintain our present position no efforts can be safely relaxed, and it is hoped that our subscription list may amount to at least as much as it did last year.
