THE VICARAGE.

HAMPTON HILL,

June 1st, 1914.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

I am sure you will all be delighted to hear that the Band of Hope has succeeded in winning both Senior and Junior Shields at the Deanery Competitions held recently at Teddington. We have held the Junior Shield for some years, but I believe it is the first time that we have secured the Senior as well. Our congratulations to those who taught the children, and to the children themselves.

About 80 Band of Hope members went to the Annual Competitions at the Crystal Palace on May 23rd, and again we did well. The junior boys won the medals for Morris Dances—an additional medal was given to Miss Lush who trained them. Beatrice Chapman was second in junior recitations, and Winnie Newman third in the senior, while Wells and Nightingale were fourth for singing, and fifth for recitation. Considering that the Competitions were for the whole diocese these performances are most creditable.

I hope a large number of people will be present in the Church Room on June 9th, when Miss Bridgman the chief organizer of the C.E.T.S. work in the diocese, will give the Address.

At the Annual Meeting of the C.E.M.S., held on Tuesday, May 26th, a very encouraging report was read by Mr. C. H. Evans, and a long discussion took place with respect to a more aggressive programme of work for next winter. Mr. Jordan presented the Churchyard report, which showed that, though much had been done during the past year, there was still room for great improvement.

We have made ourselves responsible for the "Bible Land" Court at the Autumn Missionary Exhibition to be held at Twickenham. I shall be glad to receive the names of those willing to take part as "Stewards," or they may be sent to Mr. Oatway.

I am glad to publish a further list of those who have joined the Free-will offering scheme. Mr. Dawson, Marsa, Park Road, will readily give full particulars, and supply the necessary envelopes.

We are asked to remember the work of the Girls' Friendly Society, specially at the 8 a.m. Celebration on Sunday, June 14th.

The Annual Sale of Work on behalf of Missions will be held at an early date in July, of which due notice will be given.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.
