HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE,
HAMPTON HILL,

June 28th, 1915.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

In response to my appeal for Hospital letters, I acknowledge, with many thanks, gifts received from the following:—Mrs. Hetherington, Mr. Newton, Mrs. Stutchbury and Miss Styles; such gifts are always welcome and are in constant demand.

Owing to the sad circumstances connected with the war, it has been thought wise not to hold the usual S. James's day festivities. The contributions which have been usually given to provide this annual treat might well be diverted this year to some other more necessary fund.

I am sorry that the outbreak of mumps, etc. in the day schools has not only caused the schools to be closed, but has interfered with one or two parochial gatherings, among them being the quarterly tea to the members of the Mothers' Union.

May I call your attention to the notice in connection with the Church of England Temperance Society which appears in this month's magazine?

A very beautiful tablet has been placed on the Church wall in the south aisle to commemorate the long association of the late Mr. Cremer with S. James, it was subscribed for by the children of the parish and other friends.

The Annual Inspection of the Church Lads' Brigade will be held in July, due notice of which will be given in Church; I trust that many members of the congregation will be present on that occasion.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

Hospital for Sick and Wounded Soldiers.

The money needed for equipping the Percy House Schools, Isleworth, as a Hospital for Sick and Wounded Soldiers, under the auspices of the Middlesex Territorial Force Association, seems to be coming in well. The Hamptons and Teddington have already subscribed the handsome sum of about £1,400. In our own parish Mrs. Stutchbury informs us that without her asking anyone nearly £63 (particulars of which are given below) have been sent to her and handed to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. H. Fawcett, of Hampton Wick, Mr. and Mrs. Norton have also contributed £50. The scheme, the details of which are not yet published, is an elastic one, as the number of beds provided and equipped will depend upon the amount of the funds placed at the Committee's disposal.
