

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,

April, 1918.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

I am very gratified at the response which has been made to my appeal on behalf of the Church Expenses Fund, and I hope that we shall have cleared off nearly the whole of the deficit which has been accumulating for some years. I much wish that more advantage were taken of the "Free-Willing Offering" Scheme, its general adoption would make unnecessary any special appeals. Mr. A. Poley, of Willow Bank, Uxbridge Road, will gladly supply particulars.

The Annual Cleaning of the interior of the Church will commence on Monday, April 15th, and there will be no week-day Services until the Day of Intercession for the War, on Friday, April 26th.

I call your attention to the announcement elsewhere of an effort to raise money for the School Repair Fund. I hope it will be warmly supported.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.
