

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE,
HAMPTON HILL,
April 5th, 1923.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

I regret that the Magazine is so late this month. Apparently there was no one responsible for sending matter in. The news will therefore be very short, but I hope the next issue will be as usual.

Those who were present at the Induction Service on April 3rd were, I feel sure, much impressed with the solemnity of the occasion. It was a beautiful service, much enhanced by the fine singing of the choir and the very tasteful decoration of the Church. I hope that as we set out together to do the Master's work in this Parish the wonderful words of the Bishop of Kensington will be long remembered, and that we all shall bear worthy witness to our Christian profession in our lives and works.

Until the Vicarage is ready for occupation I shall remain in residence at Hampton. I shall be at the Vicarage on week-days at the following times, as a general rule:—10 a.m. to 12.30 p.m., and 5.30 p.m. to 6.30 (except Mondays). In cases of emergency I must ask you to come to me at "Ethelda," Tudor Road, Hampton.

For the present the daily Celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m. will be discontinued. The other week-day services will be as advertised in the calendar.

The Confirmation this year is at the Parish Church, Hampton, on Monday, June 25th. I shall be glad to receive the names of intending candidates as soon as possible. Notices of classes will be announced at the Sunday Services.

I remain,
Your faithful friend and Vicar,
FREDK. P. P. HARVEY.

The Easter of 1923 has passed with all its spiritual delights. Again the responsibilities of the season have been suggested and pressed home upon us, that we may enter upon the work of the new year with a strengthened determination to be more faithful witnesses than we have yet been of the consummated work of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. That He died and rose again for us enforce the reality of the work which the Church is called upon to do, to press home the need of salvation upon every individual soul. Both the Church and every individual of which the Church is composed need a strong awakening that the same enthusiasm and earnestness of spirit which mark men's earthly relations may characterise the work of ministering to the souls of men. Change is an essential concomitant in the life, both spiritual and temporal, but the power behind all human effort and purpose will, when truly accepted, enable us to win victory through Jesus Christ our Lord.

It has been to me a great privilege and pleasure as priest-in-charge to minister among you, and I would embrace this opportunity to thank both the officers of this church and all others for the great kindness and consideration which they have shown me, and I would pray that as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our calling; one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, we may henceforth be all of one heart, of one soul, united in one holy bond of Truth.

JNO. F. LAUGHTON,
Priest-in-Charge.
