THE VICARAGE, HAMPTON HILL,

January 1st, 1926.

My DEAR PEOPLE,

At the beginning of this year, 1926, there is a much more hopeful feeling about than there was a year ago. The Locarno Pact, has no doubt been responsible for this in a great measure, but I think that there are signs also that the period of relaxation, inevitable after the strain of those four nerve racking years of war, is drawing to a close, and people are beginning to settle down seriously to the work that must of necessity be done before there can be any real progress in the solution of the many and difficult political and social problems with which we are confronted. In spiritual matters also there is a like hopeful feeling. The religious outlook is distinctly good, and while the most important matter concerning our Church, as a whole, is the Prayer Book revision, for ordinary church life the seizing of the opportunities for spiritual improvement must engage the energies of Clergy and people. In fact I think we may take as our motto for this year the one word-"Forward." I certainly hope that in many respects we may have signs of real spiritual progress. A larger attendance at the daily Celebration at half-past seven in the morning; the change from being "oncers" at worship on Sundays to being "twicers" and even "thricers"; the awakening of a keener interest in the various Parochial organisations by a far larger proportion of the members of the congregation, and the coming forward to take an active part in parochial work wherever help is needed, would all tend to real progress in things that matter. May God bless you all and give you such health and prosperity as He knows to be good for you during this year.

In the departure of Mr. Elliott, the Church has lost a good friend and most valuable worker. As my Churchwarden I shall miss his kindly, sympathetic co-operation. All our good wishes will go with him and we hope he will soon find a new sphere in which to engage his ever-ready help. Mr. C. Jakeman has very kindly consented to become my Warden, and in him I am sure we shall have a worthy successor to Mr. Elliott.

As you will see under the Parish News we are to have a very interesting Lantern Lecture in the Boys' School, on January 18th. The subject is one which should appeal to others than keen temperance workers, and I hope we shall have an audience fitting to the occasion.

I would also draw your attention to the Report and Balance Sheet of the Hampton Hill District Nursing Association. A glance at the Report is sufficient to understand what very excellent work is being done by Nurse Fozard. That she nursed 131 cases and paid nearly 3,000 visits is ample testimony, not only to the need of such an Association, but also to the fact that it warrants all the financial assistance we can give it. Looking through the accounts we notice that patients' donations amounted to no less a sum than ninetyeight pounds. What greater proof of the appreciation of Nurses work could we have? The collectors will be calling for annual subscriptions and donations about the first week in February, when I hope you will all respond to the utmost of your ability.

On December 4th, the weather was so unkind as to necessitate a postponement of the Day Schools' Concert. Our sympathies go out to the staff, the members of which had worked so very hard to make a success of the undertaking. I hope, therefore, that you will all turn up on January 22nd to show your appreciation of their efforts and to help on the fund for purchasing a new piano.

Mrs. Stevens, the Hon. Treasurer of the Working Party is leaving the Parish. We cannot, however, let her go without saying how much we appreciate the work she has done for this organisation. We wish her every happiness in her new home.

The Christmas Services were very well attended. I am most grateful to all who sent flowers, etc. for the decorations and to the decorators. The collections amounted to over sixteen pounds, which sum has been put to the Sick and Poor Fund of the Parish.

The Choir boys are being taken to the Pantomime at the Lyceum Theatre on January 4th. You will, I know, agree that they deserve this treat, and will, no doubt, show your appreciation of their services by sending me donations towards the excursion as soon as possible.

Wishing you all a very prosperous New Year. I remain, your faithful friend and Vicar,

FREDK. P. P. HARVEY.

CLUPIE SEALOR HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE Hampton Hill District Nursing Association has just completed a second successful year. The Committee cannot speak too highly of the efficient service Nurse Fozard has rendered, her untiring work and sympathetic assistance have been greatly appreciated by all her patients and their friends in Hampton Hill. Warm thanks are due to the St. James' Parochial Fête Committee; the Organizers of the St. James' Jumble Sale; and the Committee of Queen Alexandra Rose Fund, and all subscribers for their financial help, also the lady collectors and those who helped to make the dances a success. The committee gratefully received some linen and surgical appliances. More are urgently needed. Once again we would like to point out that Nurse Fozard's services are available for all in Hampton Hill without regard to denomination. It is hoped, therefore, that this most effective and much needed work will be supported by a still wider circle.
